Study Questions/Exercises

1. What is your "center?" Your true center in your life? How do you stay focused on the "Divine Center?" What might you need to do to keep your focus upon the Lord more fully?
2. Do you believe "anything is too hard for the Lord?" Ponder your life, experiences, times of trial or blessing. Have you ever doubted what the Lord could do for YOU? How might you better trust the Lord?
3. Have you ever struggled with the Lord's "ways and timing?" Felt like blessings weren't coming? Or weren't coming in a timely manner? What might you do to better "accept the Lord's ways and timing?"
4. Have you ever "looked back," like Lot's wife did? In what ways? What has helped you learn to "not look back?"
5. Have you ever felt anchored to two points and "sideways with the wind?" What might you do to better anchor yourself only to Christ?
6. How have your perceptions influenced your actions and reactions? How might having a "Divine Center" color your perceptions and thus actions/reactions differently?

7. What has the Lord given you as a test, trial, correction, refiner's fire, or pruning? How have these experiences enabled you to become more of who He wants you to be?
8. What does the test of Abraham & Isaac tell you about your life? What might you have experienced as "chastenings" and how might you learn to view them as blessings, or to see the blessings that have come as a result?
9. What will you do to make Christ your focus, your Divine Center this week, today?
