

Study Guide, Episode 90—How to Know the Mysteries of God

Ephesians

00:00-05:20	"QOTW: What are the mysteries of God & how do I come to know them?"
05:21-26:20	"Put on the whole armor of God"
26:21-35:31	"We are in 'the dispensation of the fulness of times'"
35:32-43:59	"Knowing the mysteries comes through revelation; Jesus is the ultimate mystery"
44:00-END	"Advice for husbands, wives, and parents—for our day"

- 1) What does "The mysteries of God" mean to you? How have you sought to come to know more about these mysteries? What has helped or worked? What has not helped? What might you need to improve upon in order to understand the mysteries of God?
- 2) What does it mean to you to "be an ambassador for Christ?" What does this look like, feel like? How might you more fully be an ambassador for Him? Write in your journal about this.
- 3) Which "mysteries" have you come to understand in your life already? Which do you still desire to understand? How are you seeking to understand these things? Discuss this with a friend or family member this week.
- 4) How are you seeking to receive personal revelation? What does revelation look, feel like, or sound like to you? How can you receive this revelation, this wisdom, these "mysteries unfolded" unto you? Spend time pondering, and then choose one way to increase your seeking of personal revelation this week.
- 5) What daily habits are you working on/developing that will enable you to come unto Christ, learn of Him, and receive His word, revelation, and grace? How do these enable you to better know His mysteries? What is one habit you need to work on or develop more fully this week?
